Daily goals
Weekly goals
week?
Monthly goals
coming month?
Yearly goals
year?
Keep lists
Check-ists
Goals
Deadlines
Workdays
Set aside time productive process
How do others work?
Research the field
What are your rates?
Demographics
How do they shop
Make lists
Brainstorm ideas manufacturing
Tips for promotion
Tell your story
Promote your work
Consider ads
reference
Discover your network business or work professionally setting
Build your brand
Logo
Text forms
Personality
Apply Automation
business
Apps and tools apply about your ideas
Is it in demand?
Save money
business
Stress and Upset
Visit other sites
Build a community
Know your limits
Website
Business email
Brand identity
Stay in budget
Avoid burnout
freelancers computer

SOLOPRENEUR SUCCESS

1. Set small and large goals

1.1. Daily goals

1.1.1. What can you accomplish in a day?

1.2. Weekly goals

1.2.1. What needs to be finished every week?

1.2.2. Can you do more than last week?

1.2.3. How have your goals changed?

1.3. Monthly goals

1.3.1. Are you improving each month?

1.3.2. Have you met new clients?

1.3.3. What needs to be changed for the coming month?

1.4. Yearly goals

1.4.1. Reflect on the past year

1.4.2. Did you meet your goals?

1.4.3. What new goals can you set?

1.4.4. Review information to do better in the next year

1.5. Keep lists

1.5.1. To-do

1.5.2. Checklists

1.5.3. Goals

1.6. Keep planners or calendars

1.6.1. Goals

1.6.2. Deadlines

1.6.3. Worktimes

1.7. Start small then go big

1.7.1. Complete the most productive tasks

1.7.2. Remove less important tasks or save them for later

2. Work on your business idea

2.1. What are you passionate about?

2.1.1. Something you can do daily and still stay happy

2.1.2. Do not want to stress yourself out

2.1.3. People know when you are passionate about your ideas

2.2. Is it in demand?

2.2.1. Think about how you can turn your idea into something people want

2.2.1.1. Is it useful?

2.2.1.2. Do people enjoy using or owning it?

2.2.2. Will it be in demand soon?

2.2.3. Does your business offer people something?

2.3. Prepare to launch your business

2.3.1. Save money

2.3.2. Think about your goals and track them

3. Learn to promote yourself

3.1. Social media marketing

3.1.1. Try a scheduling tool or app

3.2. Include all your strengths

3.3. Update and post often

3.3.1. At least three times a week

3.3.2. Communicate with others

3.4. Keep separate profiles for personal and business

3.4.1. Try LinkedIn, Twitter, or Facebook

3.5. Create accounts on job platforms

3.6. Consider making ads

3.7. Collaborate with other solopreneurs

3.7.1. Post and link to each other's pages

3.7.2. Develop special content

3.7.3. Like and follow each other

3.7.3.1. Broadens your audience

4. Work with professionals

4.1. Consider hiring freelancers to help

4.1.1. Accountants, virtual assistants, business consultants, content creators

4.1.2. Can be found on online platforms ie: Elance and Upwork

5. Try an agent or agency

5.1. They are there to help you find clients

5.2. Meet in person instead of online

5.2.1. Build personal relationships for future work

5.3. Build business relationships

5.4. Learn from local business owners

6. Constantly Work on Networking

6.1. Meet other pros

6.2. Form groups of pros

6.3. Build a community

6.4. Make online groups

6.5. Organize meetings

6.6. Conferences and conventions

6.7. Collaborate with others

7. Build your online presence

7.1. Domain name

7.2. Website

7.3. Business email

7.4. Brand identity

7.5. Past projects or portfolios

8. Know your limits

8.1. Stay in budget

8.2. Don’t take on more work than you can do

8.3. Consider virtual assistants

8.4. Consider outsourcing some tasks

8.5. Take breaks

8.5.1. Avoid burnout

8.5.2. Stretch or step away from the computer

8.5.3. Work/life balance is important

9. Apply Automation

9.1. Social media ai/bots

9.1.1. Stay in touch with your audience when you are away

9.2. Email campaigns and auto-responses

9.3. Bank automatic deposits

9.3.1. Set up savings/checking accounts for the business

9.4. Budgeting software

9.5. Accounting software

9.6. Apps and tools

9.6.1. Browse to find one that works for you

10. Build your brand

10.1. Logo

10.2. Brand themes and colors

10.3. Text fonts

10.4. Personality

11. Understand how to “fit in” professionally

11.1. Learn how to work with others

11.2. What are their expectations

11.3. How to interact in a professional setting

11.4. Understand the area’s culture

12. Create a freelancer profile

12.1. Tailored to your field of work

12.1.1. Include portfolios and examples of your business or work

12.2. Plenty of online options

12.2.1. Upwork, Elance, Accountemps, etc

13. Participate in organizations

13.1. Deepen your network

13.2. Meet potential clients

13.3. Go to networking events

13.4. Branch out to new people

13.4.1. Others will introduce you

13.5. Consider online groups

14. Invest in building a website

14.1. Tools for promotion

14.2. Showcase previous work

14.3. Tell your story

14.4. Hire a web designer or developer

14.5. Consider ads

14.5.1. Promote your ads

14.5.2. Promote other ads on your page for revenue

15. Conduct research

15.1. Research the field

15.1.1. How do others work?

15.1.2. What platforms are they using?

15.1.3. Study similar businesses for ideas

15.1.4. Can you cover marketing gaps

15.1.5. Can you have the domain name

15.2. What are your limits?

15.2.1. Money

15.2.2. Logistics

15.3. Study your ideal audience

15.3.1. Demographics

15.3.2. Their goals

15.3.3. Why you want their business

15.3.4. How do they shop

15.4. Brainstorm ideas

15.4.1. Make lists

15.5. Create a reliable budget

15.5.1. List all business costs

15.5.1.1. Services, tools, hiring, product manufacturing

15.5.2. Best to save backup funds for emergencies

16. Set aside time

16.1. Create a work schedule

16.2. Work during the same times

16.3. Set aside time for research, social media, and other important tasks

16.4. Know when to rest

16.5. Learn what hours of the day you are most productive

16.6. Make sure to spend time with family and friends